Meet our Director

Jenn Noon

Jenn Noon takes over the reign of Camp Director of Competitor's Edge Field Hockey, after long time director and owner Ann Petracco has retired. Noon is currently the Associate Athletic Director and Head Field Hockey Coach at Fairleigh Dickinson University-College at Florham. She was named Freedom Conference "Coach of the Year" in 2011 and led FDU to the top seed in the Freedom Conference Playoffs. Noon currently has 22 wins in just two seasons at FDU and has led her team to both the Conference Finals and ECAC Championships the past two years. Noon also coaches for the United States Field Hockey Futures Program and is a Level I and Level II USA Field Hockey Sanctioned Coach. She serves on the NCAA Regional Ranking Committee, the NCAA All-American Selection Committee, the NCAA Coach of the Year Selection Committee, and the ECAC Championship Selection Committee. A standout field hockey player at Rutgers University, Noon was a four time letter winner and was named First Team All-Big East in 2003. She was also a three time All-Academic player, a member of the National Academic Team, Big East Offensive Player of the Week, and a recipient of the field hockey team's "Mission Statement Award." Noon currently is a member of USA Field Hockey, the NFHCA, and the Big Apple Field Hockey Club.

A Special Thanks to Ann Petracco

After leading the Competitor's Edge Camp as director and owner to over 30 years of success, Ann Petracco decided to pass on the reigns to Jenn Noon. Petracco coached collegiately at Rutgers University for 26 years and Fairleigh Dickinson University-The College at Florham for 7 years. Over her coaching tenure she compiled a remarkable 311 wins with multiple "Coach of the Year" honors. Petracco's legacy will always be remembered in the realm of field hockey. Again, we thank Ann Petracco for her dedication and commitment to the development of the sport.
